AN EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY OPEN TO ALL QUALIFIED CANDIDATES. UP TO TWO (2) POSITIONS IN BAY CITY, MICHIGAN AND UP TO EIGHT (8) POSITIONS IN DETROIT, MICHIGAN.

POSITION SUMMARY

This position is located in the Probation Department. The duty station will be determined in consideration of the location of the selected candidate and the needs of the Court. Although the Chief Probation Officer directs the work of all Probation Officers, this position works under the general supervision of a Supervising Probation Officer. Probation officers serve in a judiciary law enforcement position and promote community safety, gather information, supervise persons on probation, supervised release, and parole, interact with collateral agencies, prepare reports, conduct investigations, and present recommendations to the Court.

Probation Officers may frequently work outside the normal business hours. Regular travel within the District is required. Occasional travel outside of the District may be required. See Conditions for Employment for additional information.

The candidate will be required to participate and successfully complete a six (6) week National Training Academy at the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center (FLETC) program located in Charleston, South Carolina.

The Court maintains offices in Detroit (headquarters), Ann Arbor, Bay City, Flint and Port Huron. Officers are currently located in Detroit, Ann Arbor, Bay City and Flint.

REPRESENTATIVE DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES INCLUDE:

- Conduct investigations and prepare reports for the Court with recommendations, which requires interviewing offenders/defendants and their families, as well as collecting background data from various sources. An integral part of this process is the interpretation and application of policies and procedures, statutes, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedures, and may include U.S. Sentencing Guidelines, Monographs, and relevant case law.
- Enforce court-ordered supervision conditions and implement supervision strategies. Maintain personal contact with defendants and offenders. Investigate employment, sources of income, lifestyle, and associates to assess risk and needs. Address substance abuse, mental health, domestic violence, and similar problems and implement the necessary treatment or violation proceedings, through assessment, monitoring, and counseling.
- Collect and conduct urinalysis tests of offenders/defendants, following established procedures and protocols. Maintain paper and computerized records of test results. Maintain chain of custody of urinalysis testing materials. Respond to judicial officer's request for information and advice. Testify in court as to the basis for factual findings and (if warranted) guideline applications. Serve as a resource to the Court. Maintain detailed written records of case activity. May conduct surveillance and/or plain view seizure at the direction of the Court.
- Investigate and analyze financial documents and activities and take appropriate action. Interview victim(s) and provide victim impact statements to the court. Ensure compliance with Mandatory Victims Restitution Act.
- Conduct presentence investigations and respond to any objections. This may include resolving disputed issues and presenting unresolved issues to the Court for resolution. Assess offenders'/defendants' level of risk and needs, and develop a blend of strategies for controlling and correcting risks.

QUALIFICATIONS

Qualifications must be met at the time of application.

Required:

Qualifications for United States Probation Officers are prescribed and set forth as guidelines by the Judicial Conference of the United States. To qualify for entry at Classification Level 27, candidates must have a minimum of a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university in fields of study such as criminal justice, criminology, psychology, sociology, human relations, business, or public administration and two years of specialized experience, with at least one year equivalent to work at the CL 25 level or completion of a master's degree in a field of study closely related to the position (See Specialized Experience below).

Specialized Experience: Specialized experience is described as progressively responsible experience gained after completion of the bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university in such fields as probation, pretrial services, parole, corrections, criminal investigations, or work in substance/addiction treatment. Experience as a police, custodial, or security officer, other than any criminal investigation experience, is not creditable.

Preferred:

- Minimum of 2 years experience related to investigation, supervision and/or counseling of offenders and defendants in a community corrections environment.
- Current Federal U.S. Probation Officer or U.S. Pretrial Services Officer.
- Experience using Microsoft Office Suite and E-Mail applications.

Personal Attributes and Skills:

The ideal candidate will:

- Possess good writing and communication skills.
- Possess sound ethics and judgment.
- Have the ability to organize and prioritize work assignments, work under pressure of short deadlines, and have the ability to work harmoniously with others in a team-oriented work environment.
- Be proficient in problem solving and identifying alternative solutions and possess the ability to make timely and effective decisions.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

The selected candidate must successfully complete a ten-year background investigation and every five years thereafter will be subject to an updated investigation. Prior to appointment, the selectee considered for this position will undergo a medical examination and drug screening. Upon successful completion of the medical examination and drug screening, the selectee may then be appointed provisionally pending a favorable suitability determination by the Court.

U.S. Probation Officer

Detroit Starting Salary Range: $52,616-$65,767
Bay City Starting Salary Range: $48,170-$60,210
Promotion Potential to CL-28*

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT CONTINUED:

In addition, as conditions of employment, the incumbent will be subject to ongoing random drug screening, and, as deemed necessary by management, may be subject to subsequent fitness-for-duty evaluations.

The duties of Probation Officers require the investigation and management of convicted offenders who present physical danger to probation officers and to the public. In the supervision, treatment, and control of offenders, these duties require moderate to arduous physical exercise, including prolonged periods of walking and standing, physical dexterity and coordination necessary for officer safety, and use of self-defense tactics. On a daily basis, Probation Officers face unusual mental and physical stress because they are subject to danger and possible harm during frequent, direct contact with individuals who are convicted of committing federal offenses.

Because Probation Officers must effectively deal with physical attacks and are subject to moderate to arduous physical exertion, applicants must be physically capable. Probation officers must possess, with or without corrective lenses, good distance vision in at least one eye and the ability to read normal size print. Normal hearing ability, with or without a hearing aid, is also required. Any severe health problems, such as physical defects, disease, and deformities that constitute employment hazards to the applicant or others, may disqualify an applicant. Examples of health problems that may be disqualifying are an untreated hernia, cardiovascular disorders, serious deformities or disabilities of the extremities, mental health disorders, fainting and/or seizure disorders, metabolic disorders, bleeding disorders, pulmonary disorders, and marked speech abnormalities.

First-time appointees to positions covered under law enforcement officer retirement provisions must not have reached their 37th birthday at the time of appointment. Applicants 37 or over who have previous law enforcement officer experience under the Civil Service Retirement System or the Federal Employees' Retirement System and who have either a subsequent break in service or intervening service in a non-law enforcement officer position may have their previous law enforcement experience subtracted from their age to determine whether they meet the maximum age requirement.

BENEFIT HIGHLIGHTS

Group Health, Dental, Vision and Life Insurance, Defined Benefit Pension Plan, Defined Contribution Plan (TSP) with Employer Match, On-Site Fitness Center, Generous Paid Time Off program, 10 Paid Holidays, Long-Term Care Insurance, Health and Dependent Flexible Spending Accounts and Commuter Benefit Program. Federal Occupational Health (FOH) / Employee Assistance Programs (EAP), Work Life Services and on-site Health Units at select locations. Telework, flexible and alternate work schedule opportunities may be available. Virtual Learning through the Judiciary Online University.

PROCEDURES FOR APPLYING

To be assured consideration, please submit the following single-sided documents ONLY: a cover letter (include announcement number AND duty station location (Bay City or Detroit) preference), resume (include entire professional work history) and completed application Form AO-78 (located on the Court websites listed at the left of page one) to the address at the left of page one by the closing date. Date of birth MUST be reported on the application form. E-mailed submission is preferred. E-mailed documents must be in Word, WordPerfect or PDF format. Zip files and faxes will not be accepted.

Application materials that do not adhere to the Procedures for Applying may not be considered. Applicant materials submitted in addition to the required documents will not be considered or retained. Separate application must be made to individual vacancy announcements.

A general skills and written assessment will be administered. Only those applicants selected for assessment will be contacted. Travel reimbursement in connection with the selection process and/or relocation is not authorized.

An Equal Opportunity Employer

All applicants must be a U.S. citizen or be eligible to work in the United States

All appointments subject to FBI Fingerprint Background Check; with periodic reinvestigation, if applicable.

Retention depends upon a favorable suitability determination.

All appointments also subject to mandatory electronic funds transfer
